We are pleased to invite you to attend the second annual National Association of Appellate Court Attorneys (NAACA) conference. This full four-day seminar (with one free day included), which is co-sponsored by the University of Richmond, provides continuing legal educational and professional growth opportunities for state and federal appellate court attorneys, and offers structured seminar sessions in the areas of substantive law, professional skills development, and individual growth, as well as opportunities for informal exchange and camaraderie. Our program is replete with speakers renowned in their subject areas, and we are offering a wide variety of foundational and innovative topics. Hope to see you there!

NEW ORLEANS

SHAKEN NOT STIRRED

Now is the time to fall in love with New Orleans all over again.

The most celebrated and historic core of the city – including the French Quarter, Garden District, Audubon Park and Zoo, and St. Charles Avenue – not only remains intact, both physically and spiritually, but is thriving. The cultural riches, sensual indulgences, and unparalleled service that define the New Orleans experience continue to flourish, as they have for centuries. New Orleans is open, fully prepared and eager to welcome you again.

New Orleans inspires and intrigues. The birthplace of jazz, home to some of the greatest restaurants in the world, an oasis of history and charm on the Mississippi, New Orleans is all that and more. The city's marvelous eccentricities are born from a rich heritage, respectfully and indelibly woven into the fabric of everyday life.

In this little corner of the American South, European traditions blend with Caribbean influences; the history is as colorful as the local architecture; the food is the stuff of legend. Haitian and African Creoles developed an exotic, spicy cuisine and were instrumental in creating jazz and Zydeco. New Orleans had café au lait 250 years before Seattle steamed its first latté or Starbucks roasted its first bean. Street names are French and Spanish, Creole architecture comes in a carnival of tropical colors, and voodoo is a Caribbean import. The magic is irresistible.

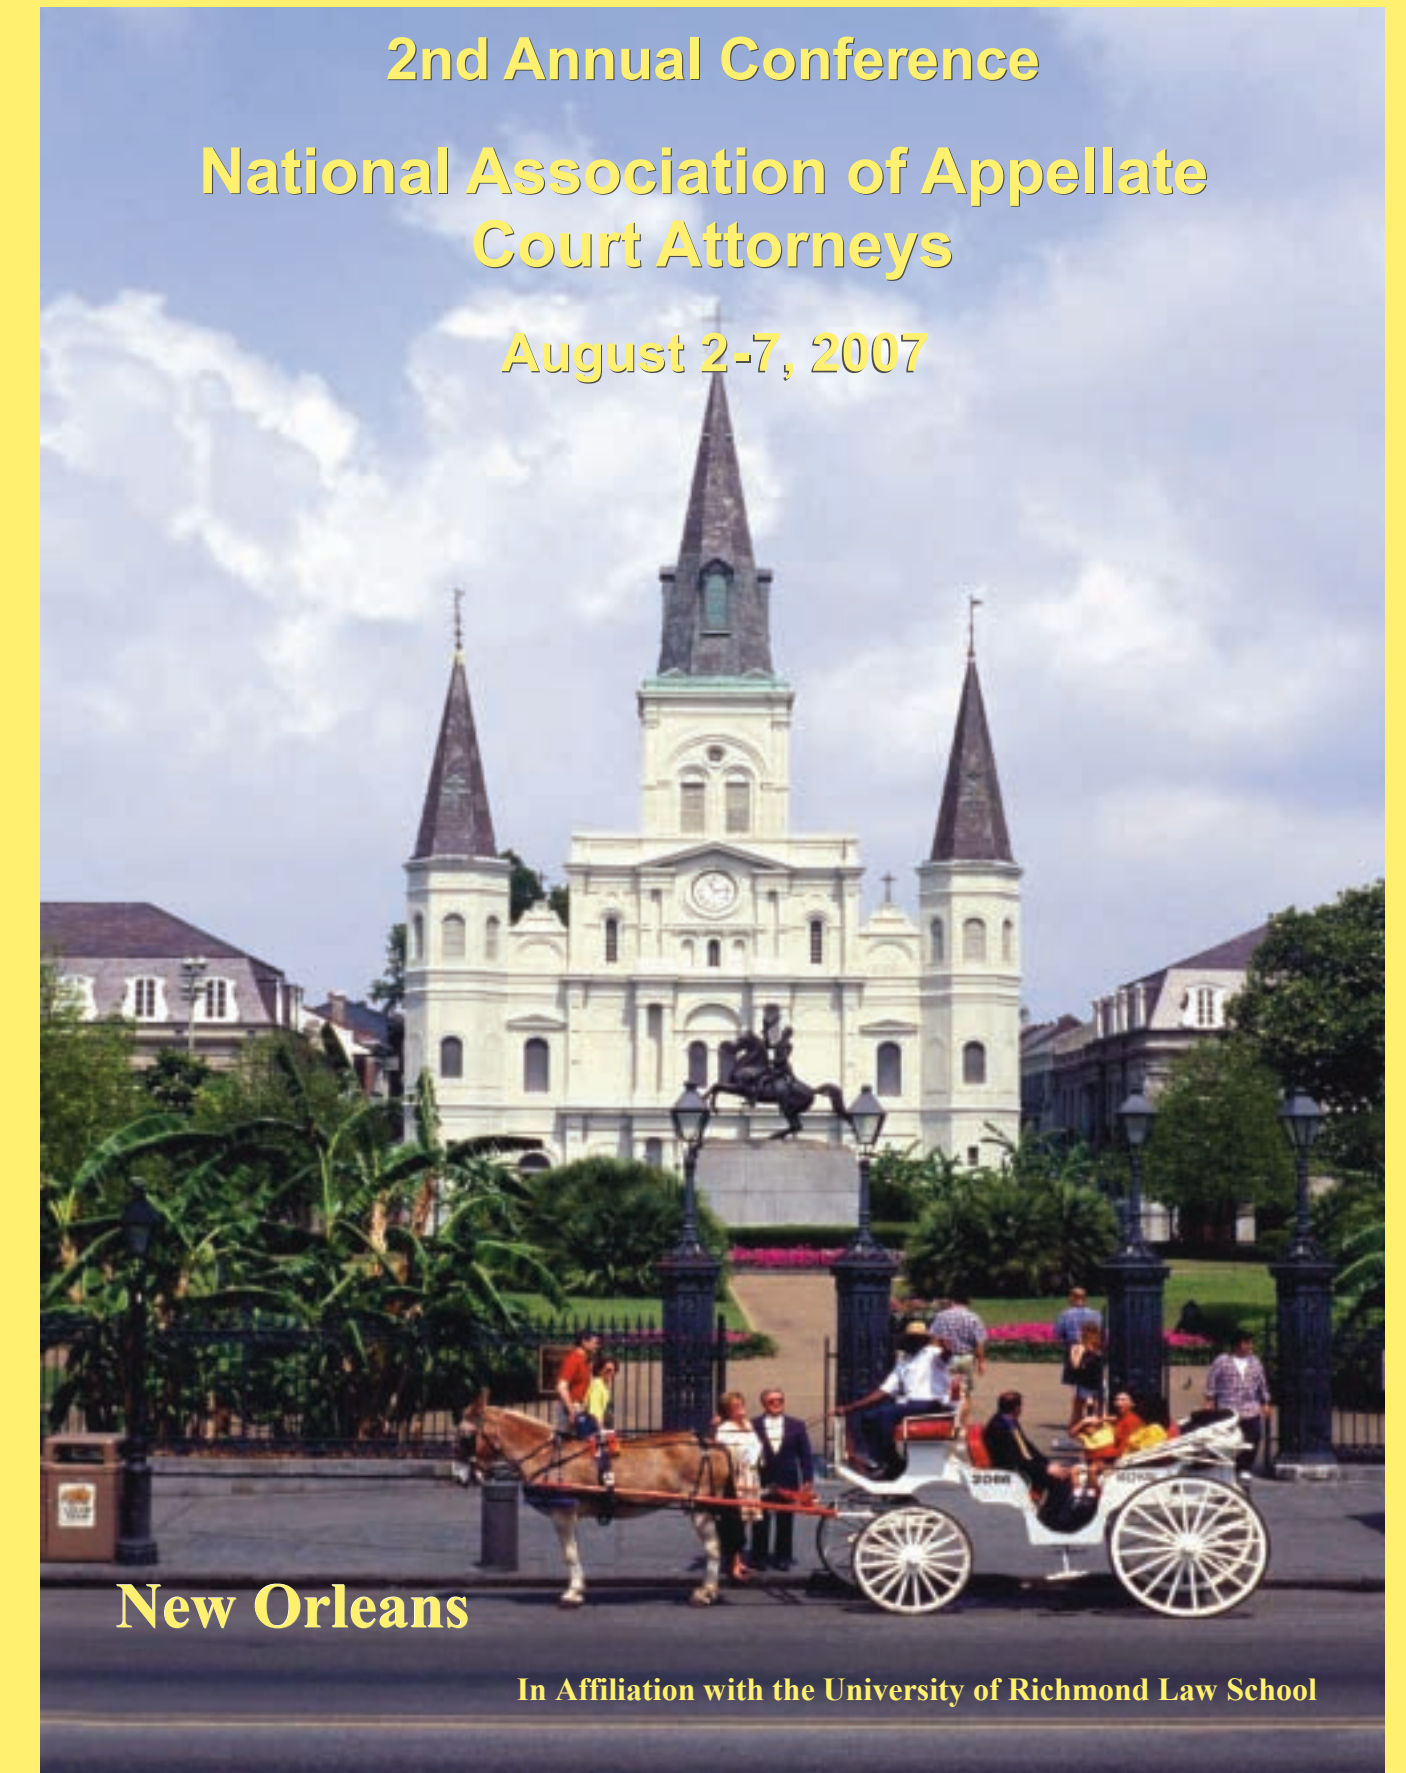

Laissez les bons temps rouler— let the good times roll— is more than a reminder of its French heritage; it's a way of life that began three centuries ago.

TUITION/REGISTRATON FEES

Conference tuition is $350 for NAACA members and $575 for non-members. There is a separate fee of $35 per person to attend the annual dinner (adults only please) and a fee of $25 ($30 for families) for guests attending social events other than the annual dinner. Registration deadline is July 19, 2007. Checks should be made payable to NAACA (Fed. Taxpayer ID No. 42-1676557).

MEMBERSHIP

To take advantage of the lower tuition rate, you must be a member of NAACA. For membership information and an application, go to: <http://law.richmond.edu/NAACA>.

ACCOMMODATIONS

The Conference is being held at the Omni Royal Orleans Hotel located in the historic French Quarter at 621 St. Louis St. Reservations may be made by calling 800/578-0500. Please refer to NAACA and ask for the NAACA rate of $109 plus tax. Rooms with two double beds are priced at $119. The hotel charges $20 per additional adult if more than 2 adults in a room. Reservations made after July 12, 2007 will be made on rate and space availability only. For more information, go to <http://www.omniorleans.com>

AIRLINE AND GROUND TRANSPORTATION

New Orleans is served by most major airlines. The Omni Hotel is a 30 minute drive from the airport. The taxi fare is $28. Shuttle service is $13, call 1-866-596-2699. If you rent a car, hotel parking is $28/day.

SOCIAL EVENTS

To facilitate informal interaction among attendees, we are offering three planned social events at this year's conference. The opening reception will take place on Thursday, August 2, and it promises a bit of traditional New Orleans revelry. We'll have a T-Shirt lottery reception at a venerable New Orleans location on Friday, August 3. The annual dinner, always a fun event, will be on Monday, August 6. Stay tuned to the NAACA listserv for details!

VOLUNTEERING

Habitat for Humanity has dozens of building projects in the New Orleans area, but will not be building on Sunday, August 5 (our free day). There are currently opportunities for hundreds of volunteers during the time we'll be in New Orleans. (No construction expertise required.) If you or those accompanying you are able to volunteer on a different day during your time in New Orleans, you can sign up online at <http://www.habitat.org/cd/frame/frameset.aspx?url=www.habitat-nola.org> For more information on volunteering, see NAACA website.

WHAT TO PACK

The dress code for the conference is casual. The average temperature in New Orleans in August ranges from an average high of 90 to an average low of 74.

CLE ACCREDITATION

NAACA is requesting MCLE credit approval for 22.5 hours which includes 1.5 hours for ethics and 1.5 hours for professionalism. Required sponsor documentation has been forwarded to and credit requested from MCLE states with general requirements for all lawyers. Lawyers seeking credit in Pennsylvania must pay fees of $1.50 per credit hour directly to PA CLE Board. NAACA pays applicable fees in states where the sponsor is required to do so, and in states where a late fee may become applicable. Please be aware that each state has its own rules and regulations, including its definition of "CLE;" therefore, some sessions may not receive credit in certain states.

REFUND POLICY

All fees, less a $50 processing fee, will be refunded to those whose request is received before July 12, 2007. There will be no refunds for cancellations received after July 12.
